the new cambridge english course is a four level course for learners of english originally published in 1945 this title was intended mainly for use by teachers wishing to test children from ages 2 8 in order to establish their intelligence based on feedback to the author this revised edition also includes tests for children up to the age of 15 the tests were used to give a teacher some idea of how much could be expected of each child so that the class when practicable could be divided into groups of varying abilities which could proceed at paces suited to their respective capacities it was felt that if inborn intellectual deficiencies could be identified at an early age the children could have special treatment or in certain cases be placed in a special school rather than be potentially written off as lazy today this can be read and enjoyed in its historical context the collections of the advocates library with the exception of its legal books and manuscripts were given by the advocates to the national library of scotland in 1925 billed in early issues as a practical journal of industrial progress this monthly covers a broad range of topics in engineering manufacturing mechanics architecture building etc later issues say it is devoted to the advancement and diffusion of practical knowledge
